Life After Death

Speaker: Archpriest Rev. Fr. Gomidas Baghsarian

What happens to our soul at the moment of death? What role does our body have in eternity? What will our life be like in eternity? When will we be judged? How will we be judged?

While much of our life beyond this world is a mystery, both Scripture and writings from the early Church Fathers provide a window into the answers to many of these questions. The Church Fathers wrote with a consistency and conviction that challenges many of the contemporary views on life after death. This evening will provide a unique opportunity to both learn about the rich Church tradition in this area and to ask questions on this topic.

Father Gomidas, who received his Master of Arts in Theology from Providence College in May of 2011, wrote an extensive thesis on this subject. We are delighted that he has agreed to share the months of research, reflection, and writing that he has completed on this topic – a topic that is of importance for all Christians. Please join us for a wonderful evening!
